

Xcel HR to Host Nationwide CPE Seminar Series for CPA's

The two-credit event will focus on avoiding HR pitfalls and mitigating fiduciary risk

Rockville, MD, May 18, 2011 – Xcel HR, a national leader in human resource outsourcing, announced today that it will host a six-part nationwide seminar series for CPA's. Xcel HR is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education in the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

At this information-packed seminar, Ted Winglass, President of Xcel HR, along with Ben Hipps, VP of Business Development at Xcel HR, will discuss the most common HR pitfalls that business owners make and how to avoid them. The seminar will feature the latest employment law requirements and the penalties for non-compliance.

Brian Smith, financial advisor with Lincoln Financial Group, will discuss fiduciary liability in a 401(k) and show how to use a Multiple Employer Plan (MEP) to mitigate that liability.

Event details and registration can be found at www.xcelhr.com/CPA. There is no fee to attend.

Event Schedule:

June 8 – Tyson's Corner Showroom, Vienna, VA
June 14, Irvington Conference Center, Rockville, MD
June 15, Ecker Business Training Center, Columbia, MD
June 21, Sheraton Birmingham Hotel, Birmingham, AL
